Dear Mr. Mevis,- When I wrote you last, I was confident nothing would prevent my participation in the exercises of Old Home week, in Southborough, but unexpected professional demands have been made upon me, and they are of a character that cannot be met with refusals. It will be impossible for me to reach Southborough in time for Old Home week, tho I expect to be there in August.

This is a matter of much regret to me, for the associations of childhood and youth furnish many of the most cherished memories I know, and I wish I were able to meet again with the neighbors and schoolmates of twenty five years ago.

Trusting and hoping that the anniversary will be successful in all things, I remain,

Very truly yours,

Dear Mr. Mavis: When I wrote you last, I was confident nothing would prevent my participation in the exercises of Old Home week, in Southboro, but unexpected professional demands have been made upon me, and they are of a character that cannot be met with reluctance. It will be impossible for me to reach Southboro in time for Old Home week, tho I expect to be there in August.

This is a matter of much regret to me, for the associations of childhood and youth furnish many of the most cherished memories I know, and I wish I were able to meet again with the neighbors and schoolmates of twenty five years ago.

Trusting and hoping that the anniversary will be successful in all things, I remain,

Very truly yours,

Dear Sir

I did not get your letter of July 3rd until my return from England, am very sorry I could not be with you, and I thank you very much for your kind invitation.
Another year I would be glad to keep you out in any way I can, the old town of Southtown will always be home to me, again thanking you for your invitation
I am from truly, W. E. Murphy

My dear Miss Bucke.

This name should be put in the address book - He might be able to come another time.

Yours truly

Rev. M. F. Lewis,
Dear Sir,

I write, for my Mother, to express her regrets that she cannot be present at the Old Home Week Celebration on the twenty-seventh inst. There is nothing she would enjoy more than meeting her town's people, and renewing old acquaintances -

Southboro is indeed the Mecca of her children and grandchildren -

Wishing you success and a glorious time

Yours

Sincerely Yours
Anna M. Whiting

Mrs Whiting,

Lewis & Wilson -
Ocean Point, Maine,
Secretary July 25, 1904.

My dear Mr. Hazard!

Ever since I received your first cordial invitation to be present at the exercises of "Old Home" day I have been eagerly anticipating the delightful occasion and hoping that nothing would prevent me from taking the part assigned me upon the program. As the day approaches, however, I find that it will probably be impossible for me to carry out my own wishes and meet the many old-time friends who, I am sure, will respond to the hearty appeals of the Committee.

This is a great disappointment to me, for two reasons. In the first place it would be a very rare pleasure to renew old associations and once more look into the faces of those who were my schoolmates & (fellow-mischief-makers) during the enchanted period of childhood and youth! What a host of recollections come crowding in upon the mind and the visions of <sup>the</sup> rosy-cheeked girls and restless boys who are now the masters and matrons of the present generation! Southboro' has so changed, topographically and in the personnel of its inhabitants, that it is especially desirable to call together as many as possi-ble of those who still call the town the "old home".

And, in the second place, I think I see in this effort to re-vive the associations of the past and to emphasize the sanctities of home, a genuine influence for true patriotism. In a tenement-hunting, globe-trotting age like this it must necessarily be a great good to bring clearly before the popular mind the inestimable value of a prolonged home anchorage, where the memories of early life are formed & where persons & localities have done their part in shaping character & giving material to the youthful imagination. I believe it may truthfully be said that the men who have made the deepest impressions in art, science, literature & statecraft are those who have spent the first fifteen years of their lives within a single horizon. The man who has in his mind the memory of an "old home", is bound to make

A good soldier, if need require,
& a trustworthly citizen.

I trust the efforts of the Committee will meet with the utmost success & that this first reunion will lead to many more in future years.

With most Cordial-Greetings to those, especially, who were near my own age & with whom I had hoped to exchange the recollections of former years,
I remain,

Sincerely Yours,

Lewis G. Wilson

To the Com. of "Old Item W. H."

The program of Anniversary Exercises has come to me, but as the address is type written I cannot tell whether it was sent by some individual friend or from the Committee.

I recall nearly all the people whose names are on the program but my memory makes them seem twenty five years younger. If Hau-cina Buck wears glasses, I think she must look very strange, also long dresses on Ruth McMastu but for her father to lead

 The choir seems quite right.

I can recall perfectly how Georgi

3

Johnson, the boy, looked & declaimed on the platform of the "Return's High School" but I must deny myself the privilege of listening to the Rev. Gay.
I would, indeed, like to hear the Rev. <sup>Mr.</sup> Adams pray again.

I feel like one of Mrs. Whitney's characters who said <sup>as there is</sup> "Reck lots of nice times in the world but I ain't in 'em". However,

 I have had one solid hour's enjoyment reading the programme & thinking about Southboro'.

Respectfully

Salem's Old Home Day

will be celebrated on Wednesday, August 17, of Maine's Old Home Week, August 14-20, and somewhat in accordance with the Programme given on the following ... pages ...

"SALEM'S OLD HOME DAY"

... Programme ...

1. Ringing of the Bells.
2. Meeting at the Town House at 9.30 when guests from the train and others will be received by the local committee.
3. Invocation by the Rev. Mr. Pottle.
4. MUSIC "Home, Sweet Home." By all present.

'Mid pleasures and palaces though we may roam,
Be it ever so humble, there's no place like home;
A charm from the skies seems to hallow us there,
Which, seek thro' the world, is ne'er met with elsewhere.

Refrain.

Home, home, sweet, sweet home,
There's no place like home,
Oh, there's no place like home.

I gaze on the moon as I tread the drear wild,
And feel that my mother now thinks of her child;
As she looks on that moon from our own cottage door,
Thro' the woodbine whose fragrance shall cheer me no more.

Refrain.

An exile from home, splendor dazzles in vain;
Oh, give me my lowly thatched cottage again;
The birds singing gayly, that came at my call;
Give me them, and that peace of mind, dearer than all.

Refrain.

5. Address of Welcome.
6. Reply to Address of Welcome by D. C. Heath.
7. Reading of Letters from those who cannot be present.
8. A Brief History of the Town from 1815 by Walter S. Heath.
9. MUSIC "Old Oaken Bucket." By all present.

How dear to my heart are the scenes of my childhood,
When fond recollection presents them to view!
The orchard, the meadow, the deep tangled wildwood,
And every loved spot which my infancy knew.
The wide spreading pond, and the mill that stood by it,
The bridge and the rock where the cataract fell,
The cot of my father, the dairy house nigh it,
And e'en the rude bucket that hung in the well.

"SALEM'S OLD HOME DAY"

Chorus.

The old oaken bucket, the iron-bound bucket,
The moss-covered bucket that hung in the well.
That moss-covered bucket I hail as a treasure,
For often at noon when returned from the field
I found it the source of an exquisite pleasure,
The purest and sweetest that nature can yield.
How ardent I seized it, with hands that were glowing,
And quick to the white pebbled bottom it fell,
Then soon with the emblem of truth overflowing,
And dripping with coolness, it rose from the well.

Chorus.

How sweet from the green mossy brim to receive it,
As, poised on the curb, it inclined to my lips !
Not a full blushing goblet could tempt me to leave it,
Tho' filled with the nectar that Jupiter sips.
And now, far removed from the loved habitation,
The tear of regret will intrusively swell,
As fancy reverts to my father's plantation,
And sighs for the bucket that hung in the well.

Chorus.

10. Poem by Charles H. Bangs.
11. Some Memories of the eastern part of the town by Rev. Abel Pottle and Hon. George Pottle.
12. Some Memories of the western part of the town by Charles H. Pease, George W. Harris and Elbridge G. Heath.
13. Reminiscences by anybody, and we hope everybody.
14. Our Schools and Schoolmasters, by one of the schoolmasters, Hon. Joel Wilbur.
15. Poem by Mrs. C. F. Underwood (Carrie Frances Nash).
16. Presentation of Cake to the oldest person present who was born in Salem.
17. MUSIC "Auld Lang Syne." By all present.

Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And never brought to mind ?
Should auld acquaintance be forgot,
And days of auld lang syne ?

Chorus.

For auld lang syne, my dear,
For auld lang syne ;
We'll tak' a cup o' kindness yet
For auld lang syne.

And here's a hand, my trusty frien',
And gie's a hand o' thine ;
We'll tak' a cup o' kindness yet,
For auld lang syne.

Chorus.

ON "OLD HOME SUNDAY," August 14, Rev. Abel Pottle (a native of Salem and now settled at South Paris, Me.) will preach at the Town House at 2.30 P. M.

On other days there may be excursions to the different parts of the town, and some contemplate the climbing of Mt. Abram. These last should not forget to bring their spyglasses.

There are likely to be many family reunions.

As sixty-five former residents of Salem have already signified their intention to be present, and twenty-five others are put down as "uncertain," it seems wise to say to those who are not already provided for that there is a good hotel at Kingfield, easily accessible by rail from Salem.

Further information may be had by addressing
"Old Home Day Committee, Salem, Me."

It has been suggested that all should bring the photographs or daguerreotypes of themselves as they appeared when living in Salem. Photographs of those who cannot come are especially desired. And will those who can't come do the Committee the favor to send a word of greeting that may be read at the Reunion.

For the Committee,

D. C. HEATH,

Rev. M. F. Mevis, Chairman,
Old Home Week Committee,
Southborough, Mass.

My dear Mr. Mevis:-

As it will be impossible for me to be present at the Anniversary exercises on Wednesday, July twenty-seventh, will you kindly extend to the Committee and my townspeople my sincere regrets.

You have my best wishes that the entire week will be all that so worthy an occasion deserves, and my hearty co-operation in all interests of Southborough.

Most cordially yours,

My dear Mr. Mevin:-

As it will be impossible for me to be present at the Anniversary celebration on Wednesday, July twenty-seventh, will you kindly extend to the Committee and my fellow-workers my sincere thanks.

You have my best wishes that the entire week will be all that so worthy an occasion deserves, and my hearty co-operation in all interests of Southborough.

Most cordially yours,

Geo. R. Hazard, Esq., Sec'y,
Southborough, Mass.

My Dear Sir:-

Your kind invitation to attend the celebration of Old Home Week in Southborough, July 27, was duly received.

I am glad to confess to a feeling of peculiar pleasure in being thus remembered by the town where I was born and from which I removed to Worcester when a mere lad.

Very much to my regret, however, my engagements during the latter part of this month will prevent my being present to take part in the exercises on the day named.

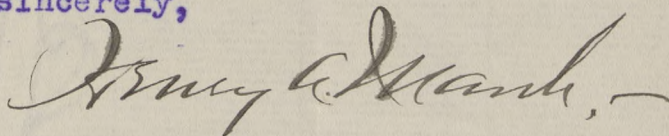

As time goes on I find myself perceptibly cherishing a more tender feeling toward the beautiful town of Southborough in whose soil rest the remains of my grandparents.

These reunions of Old Home Week must serve to stimulate materially a love and reverence for the place of one's birth or former residence and to gladden the heart in the warm greeting of friends and revival of old associations.

In your letter you address me as Mayor of Worcester. As I had the honor of holding that office in 1893, '94, '95, I belong now to the small company of Worcester's Ex-Mayors.

With a grateful appreciation of the thoughtful courtesy of your invitation, I subscribe myself,

Yours sincerely,

To
Geo. R. Hazard, Esq., Sec'y,
Town Clerk's Office
Southborough, Mass.
